GRAPHICS.

Tinsman for photographs.

H. E. Greene is seriously ill.

Carter Bros. dentists, south side.

Miss Reed and Corse Payton are favorites in Kirksville.

Mrs. Guy Chandler has been dangerously ill, but is now convalescent.

Change of program each evening at Opera House by Corse Payton and his talented company.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rice, of El Reno, Oklahoma, are visiting Mr. Rice's mother, Mrs. J. M. Wright, of this city.

J. N. TOMPKINS, of Wilson township, has purchased the W. M. Henry farm of 210 acres, in the same township.

The residence of Lawrence Brown, seven miles north of Edina, was destroyed by fire about noon Thursday of last week. No insurance.

N. Pool, of Ottumwa, Iowa, father of J. S. Pool, of this city, died Monday morning. The remains were taken to Macon, Wednesday, for burial. Mr. Pool was 80 years old.

Ed. A. Russell returned from his visit to Clark City, Monday night in good health. He is now in his 77th year and enjoyed the trip greatly. While gone he was the guest of A. G. and A. D. Vanvetson.

Mrs. N. J. Taylor, widow of the late David Taylor, of Pure Air, lost her residence and household goods by fire Saturday morning. The residence was one of the best in the neighborhood and was well furnished. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a defective flue.

A very happy reunion of the Garrett family took place at the home of W. B. Deaton in this city, January 3d. Those present were: Lawrence Hart and wife, A. D. Starr and wife, James Garrett and children, Rev. Harvey Garrett, of Bernard, Mo., Enos Garrett of Stahl, and W. B. Deaton and wife.

A little son of Henry Appleton, colored, died Tuesday morning from the effect of burns received the previous day. He was playing near the stove, when his clothing caught fire and before his mother, who was out in the yard, could reach him, and extinguish the flames, was so severely burned that death resulted in a few hours.

Judge Erwin's residence narrowly escaped destruction by fire, Tuesday night. Some clothing near the stove, it is supposed, caught fire, whence it was communicated to the carpet and the floor. Mr. Erwin was awakened in the night and discovered the fire before any serious damage was done, though a large hole was burned in the floor and carpet.

The Rev. John Gillies will preach next Sunday morning and evening in the Methodist Episcopal church. Theme for morning: "God's Firemen." In the evening "What are the Conditions of Salvation." Prayer meeting this week and next each afternoon at 2, and after next Sunday preaching 7 p. m. The public invited to attend these revival services.

The weather turned suddenly cold Tuesday night, and at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning the thermometer registered 11 degrees above zero. It continued to fall rapidly until at 8:30 it marked 4 degrees below; at noon the previously cutting atmosphere had become softened and the mercury had returned to 11 above. Thursday morning at daylight the mercury was three degrees below zero.

The Normal school debt of Adair county is practically liquidated, the Normal bonds having nearly all been paid, with enough money now in the treasury to take up the bonds that are yet outstanding. The indebtedness now remaining is as follows: Adair county Q. M. & P. bonds $75,000; Benton township Q. M. & P. bonds, $2,100; East Salt River Q. M. & P. bonds, $1,500; Kirksville school district $25,000.

The young folks' concert at Bethel, January 5, was a decided success. Among those whom our reporter deemed worthy of special mention are Daisy South, Stella Scott, Clyde Garwood, Stella Mason and Maud Waddill. The Bethel neighborhood has become quite noted for its musical talent, and its announcement of a concert is accepted as a promise of an entertainment of unusual interest and merit.

HON. F. L. MARCHANT and daughters, Misses Ruby and Fannie, of Monticello, C. W. Malinex, editor of the LaBelle Star, and Misses Fisher, of LaBelle, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Orcutt Monday evening. They were enroute to Felton to attend the reception and banquet given by the management of the insane asylum, Tuesday evening and were accompanied by Mrs. Orcutt. The party returned to Kirksville Wednesday.

The cannon ball trains on the Wabash collided at Aladin, three miles east of Hannibal, about 2 o'clock Tuesday morning. Both engines were killed and four Italian emigrants who were in the smoker. Both trains took fire, consuming the smokers, baggage cars and one chair car. The trains passed each other at Aladin and it is supposed that on the west bound train the engineer, who was not very well acquainted with the run, got lost in the dense fog and passed the switch without knowing it.

The use of straw to work into the dirt of roads on hillside to prevent washing is well known. The material is capable, however, of much more extensive application in road building. The farmers in one of the northern counties are trying the new scheme. They take straw and scatter it over the clay roads. When it has worked into the dirt and settled down it makes a hard, smooth and dustless road. The plan is used with great success in many parts of Germany.—La Belle Star

During the year 1891, there were shipped from this point in car load lots according to the Agent's freight book, which is authority, 413 car loads of stuff, as follows: wheat, 17 cars; corn, 41 cars; oats 21 cars; males, 2 cars; mules 2 cars; cattle 53 cars; hogs 120 cars; sheep 4 cars; junk 3 cars; lumber 7 cars; grain, 2 cars; apples 4 cars; flour 8 cars; hay 7 cars; hoops, 15 cars; bran 11 cars; ties 91 cars; posts, 2 cars; emigrants' goods, 4 cars; ax-handle timber 1 car. This does not include parts of car loads lots shipped as local freight. In pounds averaging 30,000 pounds to the car, which will, the number of pounds of freight in car lots shipped from this point would be 12,490,000 pounds. A pretty good showing for a small town.—Queen City, Transcript.

Brashear Items.

Miss Minnie Lyons, of Kirksville, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Fowler.

Jacob Novinger, of Stahl, was in town Monday.

S. E. Husted, of Shibleys Point visited his parents here during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. McLay are both quite ill with fever, following the la gripe.

Among others with whom the la gripe is making a long stay is Dr. Wiseman, Mr. Hynes, Geo. Platz, Mrs. St. Clair, Mrs. Husted, and Lizzie Sangster.

The Leap Year party at Mrs. S. Boon's on New Year's night was greatly enjoyed by all present. Those present were John Robertson and Ella Reimer, M. V. Lee, Etta Henry, Walter Lee, Emma McCoy, Charlie Husted, Etta Lee, Wilbur McCoy, Sadie Martin, William McLaughlin and Selby Moore.

The festival on New Year's eve was a success, notwithstanding the rain and darkness, and we shall soon hear the new bell ringing in the cupola of the U. B. church.

At midnight, though the rain was falling, the people that were in bed sleeping, were suddenly awakened by the ringing of many bells welcoming the glad New Year.

Rev. Utter preached a New Year's sermon last Sunday at the South Methodist church.

Card of Thanks.

The friends and neighbors, and especially the members of the G. A. R. both of Kirksville and Brashear who so kindly assisted me during the sickness of my husband and babe, will please accept my most sincere thanks for the assistance rendered in my great affliction. Your grateful friend, Mrs. M. A. CHURCH.

Wedding Bells.

One of the most elaborate and brilliant weddings that has ever taken place in Kirksville, occurred at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baum, Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock. The high contracting parties were Mr. Ben. H. Lowenstein, of St. Louis, and Miss Tillie Baum, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baum, old residents of this city. The residence was lighted with incandescent lights, and their soft mellow light never fell upon a happier scene. The beautiful and impressive ceremony of the Hebrew church, was pronounced by Rev. Dr. Sale, of Shara Emeth Temple, St. Louis.

After congratulations the bridal couple led the way to the dining room, followed by the wedding guests to partake of the wedding feast, which was elegantly served in seven courses, each of which was perfect in all its appointments.

At the close of the feast the toast, "The bride and groom," was proposed and was beautifully and appropriately responded to by Dr. Sale.

A large number of congratulatory telegrams were received from New York, Baltimore, Kansas City, St. Louis and other cities.

The presents were elegant, and costly, and in addition to the solid silver pieces was $100 in gold, a gift from Mr. Len Baum to the bride. Mr. M. J. Lowenstein on the editorial staff of the "New York World," also sent a check for $100, a gift to the groom. The couple left on the cannon ball train Thursday morning, for a month of travel. At the end of that time they will begin housekeeping in a home, which, according to Jewish custom, will be furnished throughout by the father of the groom.

The guests present from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. R. Lowenstein, David Lowenstein, E. O. Obermeyer and Dr. Sale and little son, all of St. Louis; Jacob Snyder and daughter, Miss Mattie, and Nathan Baum, of Milan, Will Hart, of Durango, Colo. Other guests were Mr. W. T. Baird and daughter, Miss Alta, and Mr. and Mrs. S. Jonas of this city.

BORN.

SUBLETTE.—To the wife W. H. Sublette, Nebraska City, Neb., Jan. 2, 1922, a daughter, weight 9 pounds.

MARRIED.

McCAN—ALLEY.—Wednesday evening, Dec. 23, at 6 o'clock occurred the wedding of Mr. Wm. McCann and Miss Minnie Allen, near Cairo. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Le. Cornu and was an occasion of great enjoyment. Over fifty guests sat down to the marriage feast which none knew better how to prepare than Mrs. Allen and her accomplished daughter.

—Morning Sun (Iowa) News.

Mr. McCann was formerly a highly esteemed resident of Adair county. The GRAPHIC congratulates.

Death of H. S. Parcels.

H. S. Parcels, an old and respected citizen of Los Angeles, died at his rooms in the Wilson block about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after a short illness. Mr. Parcels was taken with grip a few days ago, and the attack developed into a serious illness, the cold going to his lungs. His death was expected by his family and immediate friends, who were advised by the attending physicians that their patient's condition was critical. Mr. Parcels has been prominently identified with politics for many years. He was elected tax collector on the Democratic ticket, and three years ago was the choice of his party for county clerk. He was an active Mason, a member of Couer de Lion commandery, Knights Templar. The funeral has been announced to take place Sunday, under the auspices of the masons.—Los Angeles (Cal.) Herald, Dec. 25.

The subject of the above sketch was a brother of Edward, Thomas and Hon. W. H. Parcels of this county. He came to Adair county in early boyhood, and lived here until 1870, when he located in Los Angeles, Cal. After a residence of eight years in Los Angeles, he returned to Kirksville and remained two years, and during his stay was book keeper in the Kirksville Savings Bank. He was a thorough business man and enjoyed the highest confidence of all who knew him.
